A List of Must-Read Memoirs

This is an extra resource to go along with the original article:

How to Write a Memoir that People Care About

1. Diary of a Young Girl, by Anne Frank
2. I Am Malala: The Girl Who Stood Up for Education and Was Shot by the Taliban, by Malala Yousafzai
4. Why Me?, by Sarah Burleton
5. Wild: From Lost to Found on the Pacific Crest Trail, by Cheryl Strayed
6. Twelve Years a Slave, by Solomon Northup
7. Let's Pretend This Never Happened, by Jenny Lawson
8. Night (Night Trilogy), by Elie Wiesel
9. Brain on Fire: My Month of Madness, by Susannah Cahalan
10. The Glass Castle, by Jeannette Walls
11. Angela’s Ashes, by Frank McCourt
12. The Hiding Place, by Corrie ten Boom
14. A Moveable Feast, by Ernest Hemingway